SUPERVISORS HOLD REGULAR MEETING

The board of supervisors met in regular session, Monday, August 9th, there being present Jos. M. Francis, presiding, Jas. T. Casey, Wm. H. Brown, John MacBain and C. V. Thompson.

Assessor C. D. Hayward appeared before the board and asked that he be allowed under the general state law, to employ an extra man in his office at $5 per day, to assist in changing the maps and making them conform with the assessments. It was moved by Brown, seconded by MacBain and carried that the assessor be allowed the additional help until further action of the board.

On motion of Thompson, seconded by Brown, Manuel Goularte of San Gregorio was allowed to move his class "A" liquor license from Main street to the Montevaldo building.

The reports of the county officers will be found on page 4.

William Sharon, gardner at the court house was granted 30 days leave of absence, on motion of Brown, seconded by Thompson.

The petition of Dan Flynn for an extention of 60 days to finish his contract on the Portola road was granted on motion of MacBain, seconded by Casey.

The claim of Allen and Allen of Redwood City against Mahoney Bros., the contractors, for supplies furnished, was ordered filed.

The following applications were received for state aid: Mrs. Meta Wohler, Colma, five half orphans; Mrs. Ruth Harris, three half orphans; Mrs. Clara Mead, Redwood City, two half orphans.

On motion of Casey, seconded by Brown, the above applicants were allowed the sum of $6.25 for each child.

On motion of Casey, seconded by MacBain, Mrs. Nellie Blake of San Bruno was granted $8 a month from the indigent fund.

On motion of MacBain, seconded by Brown, the clerk was instructed to notify the superintendent of the county hospital to discontinue the payment of state aid to Mrs. Lizzie Guinetti, the State Board of Control having refused to allow the claim.

A communication was received from John Kerwin of Pescadero, whose saloon license had been revoked, asking for a rebate on his license. The application was denied on motion of Thompson, seconded by Brown.

In compliance with a request from the California State Board of Health, it was ordered, on motion of Brown, seconded by Thompson, that the traveling expenses of the county health officer be paid to the annual conference of state and county health officials to be held in Oakland, during September.

Communications were received from C. D. McGettinan, Hooker and Lent, Pillsbury, Madison and Sutro, and Stanley W. Morshead, protesting against the delay in completing the Portola road. The communications were ordered filed.

A communication was received from the Construction and Engineering Company, in reference to their claim which Surveyor Neuman protested, for additional work done in building retaining wall and culvert on the Crystal Spring road. The letter from the county surveyor to the Construction and Engineering Company in reference to the above and enclosing a copy of the opinion of District Attorney Swart regarding the payment of the claim, was read. The district attorney held that no claim could be made for extra work performed by a contractor, unless said work had been done in obedience to a written order from the board of supervisors. Both communications were ordered filed.

A communication from Walter H. Cambridge, president of the Red Cross hospital at San Mateo, asking the board to consider the propriety of supporting an emergency bed in the hospital by a donation of $600, or meeting emergency bills that cannot be collected, was ordered filed.

An application was received from Mrs. Annie Guinetti of Redwood City for county aid. On motion of MacBain, seconded by Brown, the applicant was granted $8 per month.

Under-sheriff H. W. Lampkin appeared before the board and asked that a phone be installed in the home of Robert Congdon, the newly appointed deputy, at San Mateo. The request was granted on motion of Brown, seconded by Thompson.

Under-sheriff Lampkin also asked and was granted permission to purchase three deputy's badges for the sheriff's office.

County Engineer Neuman stated that the United Railroads had offered to make the fill at Holy Cross cemetery for 20 cents per yard. On motion of Brown, seconded by MacBain, Engineer Neuman was authorized to make the fill and enter into an agreement with the railroad company for the proper carrying out of the work.

County Surveyor Neuman, who in company with Supervisors MacBain, Casey and Brown had gone to Rockaway to investigate the trouble the contractors were having in securing sufficient rock from Stone and Co., reported that the blame lay equally between Stone and Co. and the Ocean Shore Railroad Company. The latter company agreed to secure ten additional cars from the Southern Pacific, at a cost of 55 cents per car, and asked that the county stand this expense; Stone and Company assured the surveyor that they would get out rock enough to keep the contractors busy.

On motion of Brown, seconded by MacBain, Surveyor Neuman was authorized to proceed with the above arrangements with the Ocean Shore railroad.

The treasurer having reported that there was due this county the sum of $10,325.85 from the state, on account of auto licenses and justices fees, it was ordered, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Brown, that the district attorney draw up resolutions authorizing the auditor to divide the above amount between the five township funds.

On motion of Casey, seconded by Brown, the county engineer was instructed to secure a temporary road through the Hamlin property from the state highway to the old county road adjoining Holy Cross cemetery.

On motion of Brown, seconded by Thompson, James Willison was granted 60 days extension in which to complete his contract on the Halfmoon Bay to Tunitas road, 30 days on the Tunitas to San Gregorio road and 40 days on Kelly avenue.

On motion of Brown, seconded by MacBain, Mrs. Sheehan was allowed $150 for a right-of-way through her property at Lobetas.

The claims of E. B. and A. L. Stone and company for $22 and $33.65, for rock supplied, were ,rejected on motion of Brown, seconded by MacBain.

The claim of John Burke for $22.15 on account of money expended while acting as deputy constable was ordered referred to the district attorney.

A list of claims allowed will be published next week.

The board adjourned at 12:55 p. m., to meet again Monday, August 16.

BRIGHT REPUBLICAN PROSPECTS

Pessimistic calculations that there was little hope of the Republicans regaining control of the United States Senate within the next four, or possibly six years, are beginning to be dispelled, and party leaders now begin to prognosticate a return of the Republicans to power at the elections next year. A careful review of the situation politically, as it now exists in several of the states, would seem to afford substantial grounds for this optimistic hope.

The present Democratic majority in the Senate is but sixteen. Republican leaders now figure that there is every liklihood of regaining seven seats in the campaign of 1916. This would require a gain of but one more, to make a tie vote, and with the almost certainty of securing a Republican Vice President at the next election, make a majority on any important legislation a certainty.

As a basis for these prognostications, the seven Democrats whom it is expected to replace are: Martine, of New Jersey, who owes his seat to the stout championship of the President, since ungratefully forgotten; Johnson, of Maine, where the reunion of Republicans and Progressives goes on apace; O'Gorman, of New York; Pomerine, of Ohio; Kern, of Indiana; Hitchcock, of Nebraska, who seems to be Bryan's pet aversion; and Chilton, of West Virginia. The extra seat requisite for the tie may be found in Delaware; in Maryland, where Senators Lee and Smith are splitting the Democratic party wide open; in Missouri, where chairman Frank Walsh of the industrial relations commission will fight Senator Reed's re-election; or in Nevada, where Pittman goes out and Newlands was given less than 100 majority.

The young man is also connected with the company, being the western representative of the company, with offices in the Kohl building, San Francisco. The pretty bride is a daughter of Mr. J. Dempsey, a retired newspaperman of Chicago.

G. C. Whitman and wife of Kansas City, Missouri arrived here yesterday on a visit to Undersheriff H. W. Lampkin and wife. Mr. Whitman has visited every exposition that was held in the United States. He says the Panama-Pacific exposition is the best he has ever seen.

SPICE

There was a couple who had two children, a boy of fourteen and a girl of twelve. About that time of life another baby came along. With that prudishness so commonly found, the parents took the greatest pains that the children should not know anything about the condition of their mother or the impending event, and when the time approached the girl was sent on a vacation to some relatives in another city. At the last the great event took place, and the father came and said to the boy: "Johnny, you have a new baby brother." The boy said nothing. The father sat down at his desk and in a few moments handed the boy a telegram. "Take that to the telegraph office," he said, "and send it to sister. Here is a dollar to pay the charges." The boy came back after a while and handed his father the change. "What," said the father, "that telegram cost more than 35 cents, didn't it?" "Oh, yes," the boy replied, "the one you wrote would have cost more. I sent one of my own." "You did," the father said, "and what did you say?" "Oh," the lad replied, "I just wired sister: 'I win, it's a boy.'"

WOODSIDE NOTES

Albert C. Hoooper, brother of John A. Hooper , the lumber magnate of this place, has purchased the beautiful E. C. Hughes home at Palo Alto. The price paid for the property was $30,000. Mr. Hooper is giving up his fine residence at San Francisco to move to the College City. He preferred a home on the peninsula to a residence on the other side of the bay.

A grass fire started near the premises of E. H. Rixford and vineyard last Sunday. The flames reached the dry grass close to the big barn and garage. The barn was soon in flames. By the heroic work of Woodside's population, who formed a big bucket brigade, the blaze was soon under control and the fire extinguished before much damage was done. The barn was stored full of hay and it is fortunate the fire did not reach the bales for if it did nothing could have saved it or the beautiful residence near by.

COAST SIDE NOTES

Miss Azalia Fernandes has returned to the home of her parents at Halfmoon Bay after an extended visit with relatives at Livermore.

Mrs. Fred Vallejo of Halfmoon Bay who has been visiting for several turned to her home.

W. O. Flecker and family have returned to Moss Beach after several weeks spent in a motor tour of the central portion of the state.

The Ocean Shore Canning Company has completed its season's pack of peas, putting up a total of 350,000 gallon cans. The cannery is now running on string beans, of which there is a prospect of a large output.

The trustees of the Halfmoon Bay high school are arranging to run a buss line between Montara and Halfmoon Bay for the accommodation of pupils living between the two places.

The new building being erected for G. Patroni at Princeton is nearly ready for occupancy.

Halfmoon Bay was the scene of several petty burglaries, all probably the work of a gang of tramps, last Tuesday evening. One of the worst sufferers from the raid was Dr. Morgan's drug store, from which several articles of jewelry and a quantity of cigars was taken. At the Occidental Hotel, one of the guests was the looser of a few toilet articles. So far nothing has been found to give a clue to the culprits.

James Sheriff, an old resident of Halfmoon Bay, died at the county hospital on Sunday after a long illness. The deceased was a native of Scotland, aged 68 years. He was formerly employed at the Hatch mill at Halfmoon Bay. He lost his arm at the mill some years ago while employed there. Mr. Sheriff was well known on the coast side having resided there for a great many years.

The play given by the Menlo Park Dramatic Club in the Hall of the Nativity last Friday evening was well attended, in fact the hall was crowded to the doors. The performance was most excellent, professionals could not have done much better. The actors and actresses showed the benefit of hard work and training. It would be invidious to mention any particular individual for they all did well. Too much praise cannot be given the performers and when they announce another play the members of the club may be assured of a crowded house.

Members of the Menlo Park Horticultural Society picnicked at Congress Springs last Sunday. About 100 gardeners and their families were in attendance. The electric cars were taken at Palo Alto which conveyed the party to the beautiful grounds nestled in the hills. All brought well-filled baskets which were open under the shady trees by a bubbling brook and full justice done the tempting viands. In the afternoon races and games took place to the enjoyment of all. The outing was thoroughly enjoyed by the gardeners and their guests. Hereafter the picnic is to be made an annual affair.

Miss Edna Crane will be the recipient of many parties and receptions during the week. The young lady will be married to C. E. Burchfield next Wednesday evening in the Church of the Nativity with much pomp and ceremony. Last Monday evening the choir of the Church of the Nativity gave a dinner in her honor at the parochial residence. Twenty young people were present. Edward J. Stanley, the handsome young leader, in a happy and felicitious speech on behalf of the choir members presented Miss Crane with a costly set of cut glass. Miss Crane was too overcome with emotion to respond. She has been a member of the choir, as organist, for many years. Miss Crane will be the honored guest at a luncheon today at the home of R. E. Miller at Atherton. Miss Ethel Cowperthwaithe is to be the hostess. Several out of town guests are to be present.

The funeral services over the remains of Daniel H. Doyle, who died at Colfax on August 8th, were held on Thursday in the Church of the Nativity. A large number of friends attended the solemn ceremony. The deceased was a native of Menlo Park, aged 41 years. He was the son of the late John T. Doyle, at one time the leader of the bar of the state of California. Mr. Doyle had been ill for some months and about three weeks ago went to Colfax in the hope of regaining his health. He is survived by three brothers, Edward, John and William T. S. Doyle. The latter is a prominent attorney practicing at Washington, D. C. and a sister, Miss Maria Doyle of Menlo Park. Mr. Doyle was a genial man beloved by all who knew him. The remains were placed in the family vault in Holy Cross cemetery. The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: Thomas Flynn, W. A. Curtis, Lee E. Pipkin, Arthur Swift, E. Eikerenkotter and Paul Stevens.

John C. Buelna met with a shocking accident last Thursday afternoon which resulted in his death. He was engaged in driving the sprinkling cart which set the dust in streets around town. When nearing Duff and Doyle's store he made an attempt to leave the seat of the wagon and in some unaccountable way slipped and fell between the horses. They became frightened and ran away. Buelna dropped to the ground and the wheels of the heavy wagon passed over his body. He was bundled into an automobile and taken to the Peninsula hospital in Palo Alto, but shortly after his arrival there he expired. Coroner Kell of Santa Clara county held an inquest at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The jury brought in a verdict of accidental death. The remains were brought home last evening. The funeral will take place at the Church of the Nativity this afternoon at 2 o'clock and interment will be in Holy Cross cemetery. The deceased was born in Bolinas, Marin Co. 43 years ago and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Buelna of this place. He attended the local grammar school and was held in high esteem by all who knew him. His aged mother is prostrated with grief and cannot be consoled. Much fear is entertained concerning her recovery. The suddenness of the shock rendered her hysterical. She constantly moans for her boy, whose loving embrace she will experience no more. The deceased is survived by his parents, a brother and two sisters. The family has the extreme sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.

GETTYSBURG, GREATEST OF ALL WAR PICTURES

Famous Reproduction of Climax of Civil War, Zone Feature

War has become more or less a popular pursuit, or a deadly obession which ever way the individual may view it, over in Europe, in Asia and in Africa, but, praises be, the only way the Yankee can get his taste of it, without butting into that half of the world which is aflame, is to go out on the Zone of the Panama-Pacific Exposition and see it in the Pictures. Taking it all in all, it's really the safer and pleasanter way.

In the "Battle of Gettysburg" the Zone boasts the greatest war picture ever turned off by an artist's brush. In every detail, even down to the litter of broken gun carriages, bent bayonets, discarded knapsacks, and, sadly enough, the heaped dead of both "blue" and "gray", it is a reproduction of that famed field of the Civil war after it had been swept by Pickett's charge.

Twenty years were required by the famous French artist who painted that tremendous picture and through all that time he worked with stories of eye witnesses and participants, officers, privates, settlers who were on the field when the death flame began and still there when it had passed over. It was one artist's life work, just as the battle itself was the culmination of the life work of the thousands who fell when the awful bolt was hurled.

So vast is the painting, so wonderfully interesting, that one may look for an hour or for the half of a day and still come upon undiscovered features.

As a historical document, the government at Washington has declared, it transcends every story, ever reported, ever printed.

Out at the Exposition grounds "Gettysburg" is the mecca and the lounging place of the old fellows of the G. A. R. Out in front and in the lobbies, they argue the battle over and over and then go inside to prove their points by the painted evidence. It is a common saying at the Administration offices of the Exposition that the "vets" have worn a trail from the main gate of the exposition down the Zone to the entrance to "Gettysburg."

TWO FACTORY SITES ARE TO BE OCCUPIED

Local Concerns Making Active Preparations for Extension of Business Facilities

Redwood City is about to come into its own. The dream of many years is soon to be realized. Before the end of the current month at least two corporations will be engaged in erecting plants in the territory adjacent to the deep water harbor. Negotiations are now under way for the immediate transfer of two sites along the harbor front and these negotiations will be brought to a successful termination within the next two days.

The Peninsula Dock and Warehouse Company and the Union Oil Company are the concerns which are most interested in the present plans. Walker C. Graves, Jr. sees in the completion of the deep water harbor development work the opportunity which he has been seeking for nearly a year and in the nterest of his dock and warehouse company is going to take advantage of this opportunity without delay. The business of the Graves line of freight steamers has made such rapid growth that Mr. Graves finds himself compelled to establish a time card for his freighters that will not be dependent upon tide conditions and the completion of the deep water harbor project makes the enactment of this plan an easy matter.

Arrangements are about completed between Mr. Graves and the Redwood City Harbor company for the purchase of two acres of land situated at a point on the harbor company's holdings where Redwood creek and the deep water harbor meet. At this point it is the intention of Mr. Graves to erect wharves and freight houses and from these wharves a daily line of steamers will be maintained between Redwood City and San Francisco making regular schedule time.

With the establishment of this line ment of a long cherished plan of of steamers will come the enact- Mr. Graves' freight service will be established between San Francisco and every point on the peninsula down to and including San Jose with Redwood City as the principal freight center. As the first step toward the carrying out of this plan another steamer has just been purchased by Mr. Graves. This boat is of a larger and faster type than the boats now being used by the dock and warehouse company; it contains compound engines and is driven by twin screw propellers. The new vessel will be used exclusively on the run between the bay city and the deep water harbor. In order to maintain proper service between Redwood City, San Jose and intermediate points, Mr. Graves plans to add to his land equipment several large motor trucks and a motor tractor and train.

The establishment of the docks at deep water does not mean that the Peninsula Dock and Warehouse Co. will abandon its present wharf and warehouses at the foot of Main street. Steamer service will be maintained through Redwood creek as at present and the same warehouse service will be extended the merchants. The new line will provide additional service and place the freight company in a position where it can enter into fast service contracts and maintain a daily fast freight schedule. When the belt line to the harbor is ballasted and the driveway macadamed Mr. Graves may add a passenger boat to his fleet.

The deep water harbor offers many reasons for the contemplated move of the Union Oil Company. The need of additional territory to meet the demands of a rapidly growing business forms one reason but the great big reason is the deep water to be found in the harbor. Oil can be transported in larger quantities and at a much lower cost by water than by any other method and Redwood harbor will permit the docking of the largest tanker afloat.

The movement toward deep water by the Peninsula Dock and Warehouse Company and the Union Oil Company has filled the men who have labored long and earnestly to develope Redwood City's harbor possibilities with optimism. They feel that the success of the project and the future greatness of Redwood are now assured. When, they reason, it is demonstrated how easily freight and oil can be distributed to all peninsula points from the harbor, manufacturers will sit up and take notice. Then it will be easy to demonstrate that with the same facility finished products can be shipped direct from Redwood City, by rail or water to any part of the universe.

MAKES PERILOUS VENTURE IN TRIP TO THE YOSEMITE

Young Local Lady Greatly Enjoys an Adventurous Vacation

Miss Edna Truman returned last week from Yosemite where she had been spending her vacation at Camp Curry. While Miss Truman was at Yosemite a party of two young men and two young women made the perilous ascent to the top of Half Dome and Miss Jessie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. S. Smith of this city was one of the girls. Half Dome has not been scaled since 1896 and it was considered well nigh impossible to climb the smoth surface. Years ago spikes were driven into the great rock at regular intervals and a rope attached so that the more venturesome might climb this great stone monument, but the rope rotted and some of the spikes were loosened and lost and for twenty years no one cared to brave the trip. This party of four however attached new ropes, made the climb and trod where no foot had trod for a decade and where perhaps no foot will again tread for many years to come.

REDWOOD BALL TOSSERS GIVE GAME TO SAN JOSE

Manager Griffin Strengthens His Lines for Next Game

The local baseball team lost last Sunday to the Picchetti Bros.' team of San Jose by a score of 5 to 1. The defeat was the result of the Redwood boys' inability to hit when hits meant runs for themselves and their ability to kick the ball when kicks meant runs for the other side.

Redwood made but two hits, both by Joe Botto, who also made a dandy one-handed stop of a line drive. Chase allowed but seven hits but his team mates spilled the beans.

Winter and Fitzgerald both fielded their positions well.

In order to strengthen the locals' line up manager Ray Griffin has signed three new men who are reputed first class ball players. The new men will be seen in the game to-morrow against the Santa Clara Sodality nine. This team has the reputation of being a fast outfit and an interesting game is assured as the management of the locals is determined that the fans shall get their moneys' worth. The game will start promptly at 2:30 p. m.

COURT DECREES SALE OF PIONEER COUNTRY ESTATE

Selby Realty at Atherton is to Pass Into Strange Hands

An order for the sale of the 460-acre Selby estate at Atherton, valued at $500,000, and the appointment of Daniel Flynn of Redwood City as trustee to take charge of the sale was made Monday in an interlocutory decree issued by Judge George H. Buck in a suit brought by certain of the Selby heirs to have the real estate converted into income-producing property.

Flynn, as trustee, is ordered to convert the estate from realty into cash and then purchase income producing securities, which are to be held for the benefit of Mrs. Henrietta I. Selby during her lifetime and then to be distrubuted among the heirs. The trustee is placed under a $100,000 bond for the faithful performance of his duties.

The suit was brought by Henrietta Selby, Clara W. Ralston, Annie A. Selby, Percival W. Selby, Florence Selby, Frederick Kempff, Faxon D. Atherton Jr., Carmelita Johnson, Jane Hayne, Clare Ralston Bullitt, and Coralie Olney against the various minor children who are heirs to the estate. It was tried on June 17. Attorney E. J. Pringle appearing for the plaintiffs and C. G. Landscheit guardian ad litem, and Attorney James T. O'Keefe for the defendants.

The property to be sold was the old homestead of Thomas H. Selby, a pioneer of the peninsula and former mayor of San Francisco, who died June 9th, 1875.

By the terms of the will left by Mr. Selby, the property was bequeathed to his wife to hold and enjoy the profits during the natural term of her life and to her death it was to be divided among Mr. Selby's heirs. Mrs. Selby desired that an order overcoming that clause be secured in order that she might sell the ranch and convert it into personal property from which she might receive revenue. There is no income derived from the ranch owing to high taxes, costs of repairs and the low rent received from farming land. The price of the big holding has so risen that it would be better to convert the realty into cash, from which a revenue could be received. The suit is a friendly one as all the heirs have suggested to Mrs. Selby that it would be to the best interest of all concerned to sell the property. Mrs. Selby arrived in San Francisco last Monday with the body of her daughter, Annie Selby, who died on a steamer from Europe as she and her mother were entering the New York harbor some two weeks ago. She is nearly 91 years old and is totally blind and infirm. Mrs. Selby is rich in her own right.

AGED COASTSIDE WOMAN IS DECLARED INCOMPETENT

Guardian is Named for Owner of Historical Property

Judge Buck has appointed Florinda A. Nelson guardian of the person and estate of Mary Theresa Doherty, an old resident of the coast. The estate consists of the Purissima hotel and six acres of land at Purissima and an another parcel of land containing two acres across the road from the hotel property. Mrs. Doherty claims to be 81 years old, but her neighbors say she is 91. Mrs. Doherty has two sons, Herbert Buzzell, aged 50 years, and Arthur Brittain, aged 60 years. The latter's residence is unknown but he is supposed to live somewhere in Arizona. The other son resides with his mother at Purissima. Franklin Swart is the attorney for Mrs. Nelson, who has taken care of Mrs. Doherty for some time. The old Purissima hotel was the mecca for fishermen many years ago. It was noted for the quality of steaks served there, in fact the proprietor, Dick Doherty, was known by the sobriquet of "Beef Steak Dick." All the diciples of Ike Walton sought the resort. After whipping the near by streams they were sure of a juicy steak on their return to the hotel. In early days it was the best known resort between San Francisco and Santa Cruz. In those days it was also a meeting place for all the politicians.

Superior Court Notes

The suit entitled E. W. McLellan against Edward Howard and others has been dismissed in the superior court. The notice of dismissal was filed in the county clerk's office yesterday.

Judge Buck signed a decree yesterday vesting a homestead in William Perkins to lot 8, block 35, Western Addition to the City of San Mateo. Agnes Perkins owned the property jointly with her husband. She died on February 2, 1915.

Margaret Foley has petitioned the superior court for an order vesting in her a title to lot 9, block 30, Western Addition to the City of San Mateo. James Foley who jointly owned the property, died on August 3, 1915.

Jury Convicts Frazer

A jury in Judge Buck's court found H. J. Frazer guilty of petty larceny yesterday afternoon. He will be sentenced on Monday. On June 14th Frazer, who was employed by S. R. Glazer, a cleaner and dyer of San Mateo, purloined two suits of clothes belonging to J. W. Lilienthal and a suit case owned by W. H. Topke. Frazer claimed he intended to return the articles. Kenneth M. Green defended the defendant while District Attorney Swart prosecuted the case. Frazer has already served two months in jail.
